

IAEA

With the Atoms4Food initiative the IAEA commits, alongside its partners, to helping countries reduce hunger and help improve nutrition for all children and adults to enjoy the benefits of sport around the world. With nuclear techniques we help enhance agricultural and livestock productivity, natural resources management, reduce food losses, ensure food safety and adapt to the challenges of climate change.